

news release

AMBASSADOR INTERNATIONAL
427 Wade Hampton Blvd
Greenville, SC 29617
Ph. 864.235.2434
Fx. 864. 235.2491
www.ambassador-international.com

MEDIA CONTACT: Alison Storm
864.235.2434
media@emeraldhouse.com

HEART-WRENCHING NOVEL TELLS STORY OF CHRISTMASTIME KIDNAPPING THE 20TH CHRISTMAS FILLED WITH TWO DECADES OF EMOTION

For immediate release: “Write this-- it’s time.” Awoken after a vivid dream that revealed the plot for author Andrea Rodgers’ latest novel, the voice of God very clearly told her this story needed to be told. In The 20th Christmas (Ambassador International; October 2014; $13.99, paperback) a joyous day spent shopping for gifts on a cold December morning turns tragic as Arianna Tate’s toddler Chase goes missing from a coffee shop.

Rodgers takes readers on an emotional, two-decade long journey. Set in Des Moines, Iowa, this fictional kidnapping makes reference to the well-known Johnny Gosch case, a 12-year-old newspaper carrier who disappeared during his route in 1982. The abduction put parents across the state on edge and sparked a fear campaign in the Iowa schools.

Instead of helping her son make his first gingerbread house, Arianna is fielding questions from authorities about his disappearance. Two days before Christmas Chase’s friends, family and complete strangers gather in frigid temperatures for a candlelight vigil outside the coffee shop he was last seen. Living in a fog of guilt and pain, the Tate’s celebrate Christmas after Christmas longing for the return of their precious son. With their marriage on the verge of destruction, the Tate’s must find a way to live with the grief of losing their son.

Meanwhile a drug addicted, mentally unstable woman reconnects with her estranged sister, this time with a child. After her sister’s death, Lydia and her husband adopt the little boy, raising him alongside their own four children. The 20th Christmas begins in 1994 with Chase’s disappearance, and ends in 2014 with an answer to Arianna’s repeated question to God, “why?”

About the Author: Andrea Rodgers knew from a young age that she wanted to be a novelist. Her passion never wavered, even when she put creative writing on hold for “a real job.” Andrea majored in journalism and mass communication at Iowa State University and worked at a Christian music station prior to being a stay-at-home-mom. She’s thrilled to be doing what she feels is her purpose in life. Andrea resides near Des Moines with her husband and two children.

To receive a review copy of The 20th Christmas or to connect with the author please contact publicist Alison Storm by email at media@emeraldhouse.com.

RELEASE DATE: October 2014
TRADE Paperback
PAGES: 196
PRICE: $13.99
ISBN: 9781620202692

ABOUT THE PUBLISHER: Ambassador International was founded in 1980 in Belfast, Northern Ireland and expanded to Greenville, South Carolina in 1995. Ambassador International’s books and materials have been distributed in dozens of countries and are sold worldwide. For more information visit www.ambassador-international.com. You can also follow @AmbassadorIntl on Twitter or check out Facebook.com/AmbassadorIntl.

Suggested Interview Questions for the author:

1. What led you to write The 20th Christmas?
2. This is every parent's nightmare-- was writing this book an emotional experience for you?
3. How did writing this book change you?
4. What message do you want readers to walk away with?
5. What was your favorite chapter to write?
6. How did your own children inspire the characters of this book?
7. How much research did you do about kidnapping and child abductions to write on this topic?

Reviews:

"I was carried through the grief that filled the broken heart and tears of Arianna Tate after the kidnapping of her son Chase. She continued to grasp onto hope within the pages, clinging to her intuitive hope that her son was still alive and that she would look into his eyes again someday. She retained a heroine strength, never swaying from God's written word, hope and love. There wasn't a dry spot to be found while reading - the story remained alive until the very last sentence. In the end, I was left speechless ... A smile washed over my face and peace filled my soul. I look forward to more of Andrea Rodgers' work in the future!"

- Jennifer Ross, author of Isaiah's Story

"The 20th Christmas is a poignant story of immense heartbreak and the healing touch of the Father's hand. The author gracefully conveys how God can redeem even the most tragic circumstances and turn ashes into beauty."

- Carrie Daws, author of Crossing's Redemption, Romancing Melody, and others

author bio

AMBASSADOR INTERNATIONAL
427 Wade Hampton Blvd
Greenville, SC 29617
Ph. 864.235.2434
Fx. 864. 235.2491
www.ambassador-international.com

MEDIA CONTACT: Alison Storm
864.235.2434
media@emeraldhouse.com

ANDREA RODGERS Author of "The 20th Christmas"

Andrea Rodgers knew from a young age that she wanted to be a novelist. Her passion never wavered, even when she put creative writing on hold for "a real job." Andrea majored in journalism and mass communication at Iowa State University and worked at a Christian music station prior to being a stay-at-home-mom. She's thrilled to be doing what she feels is her purpose in life. Andrea resides near Des Moines with her husband and two children.

Connect with the Author

 authorandrearodgers.com

 @AuthorARodgers

 facebook.com/authorandrearodgers

 pinterest.com/AuthorARodgers/

ABOUT THE PUBLISHER: Ambassador International was founded in 1980 in Belfast, Northern Ireland and expanded to Greenville, South Carolina in 1995. Ambassador International's books and materials have been distributed in dozens of countries and are sold worldwide. For more information visit www.ambassador-international.com. You can also follow @AmbassadorIntl on Twitter or check out Facebook.com/AmbassadorIntl.