For immediate release: In Where the Sky Meets the Sand (Ambassador International; September 1 2017; $15.99, paperback) Jenny Neumeyer and her husband are on vacation in Kenya when they befriend a homeless boy named Ole. After letting the boy stay with them for a few days and keeping him from illness, Jenny must confront one of her most well-kept secrets. Moving forward, she starts a journey that she hopes will end in good news.

While she comes to terms with her past, two missionaries have one mission to complete while in Africa. They discover Ole, but they realize that Ole is not the only one who is lost. Now, there is more than one mission to accomplish. Can they help the boy find his way home and towards believing?

With the little African boy bringing people together, God's grace is shown to be relentless and patient. Will all of their wishes come true when the sky meets the sand? With a little help and guidance from God, their faith is what will see them through in the end.
