FORMER WATERMELON QUEEN WRITES A YOUNG ADULT FICTION BOOK A STORY OF LOVE AND GOD'S GRACE

RELEASE DATE: March 20, 2018
TRADE Paperback
PAGES: 224
PRICE: $15.99
ISBN: 9781620206195

For immediate release: As the newly-crowned watermelon queen, Grace Summer is thrust into the spotlight while dealing with a new life and an old past that still haunts her. Grace finds herself in a melon load of trouble when she becomes torn between the boy of her dreams and the boy next door. With her work on the watermelon farm, her crown responsibilities, her painful past, and her new love, Grace doesn't think she can handle everything life has thrown at her. Her loving gramps shows her that God will give her the strength she needs if she will trust in Him.

In her new book, Loving Grace (Ambassador International, March 20, 2018, $15.99), April Smith writes a fictional story about young love and God's grace. Smith spent her summers working on her best friend's watermelon farm, and had the opportunity to work for the industry as one of their watermelon queens. Smith says, "I knew I wanted Grace's story to take place in the watermelon world. I also wanted the reader to learn something. In this case, the main takeaway is that true happiness comes from resting in the grace of God. Things of this world may make us happy for a time, but they tarnish when compared to what God has to offer."

About the Author: Smith was crowned Illiana Watermelon Queen in 2002 and has since held those memories from her tour as queen as some of the sweetest to look back on. Smith lives in Evansville, IN and when she is not writing or teaching, she enjoys reading, sewing, quilting, and spending time with her family.

April Smith provides a captivating romance novel of the tragedy of life and the misplaced trust of the heart that seeks love. The heroin (Grace) finds true love and her first kiss in the only place she had not looked—right before her eyes.
