For immediate release: How can a woman love God as she should and keep the rest of her life in its proper place? In her new book, More Than These: A Woman's Love for God (Ambassador International, May 2018, 14.99) author June Kimmel addresses this question that every woman who desires to walk with God must face. Innumerable responsibilities fill her life and seek to take control of her time, energy, and focus. In spite of her best intentions, these worthy concerns can slip into a place of prominence in her heart--a place only God deserves. These people and situations that capture her love can quickly become idols when priorities go unchecked.

In More Than These, each chapter considers a different aspect of a woman's life that can become an idol--family, friends, possessions, fears, accomplishments, etc. Kimmel clearly presents biblical truths and personal illustrations to teach why a woman must surrender these areas to the Lord for Him to remain her ultimate love.

About the Author: June Kimmel is a pastor's wife, mother of three, and grandmother of seven. Kimmel and her husband have been in ministry for over forty years, and her greatest joy is teaching God's Word to ladies of all ages and walks of life. Kimmel regularly speaks at ladies conferences and retreats, educators conferences, and other special events in the United States and internationally. Through their ministry "Training the Nations" Kimmel and her husband train pastors, their wives, and Christian educators around the world.

Endorsement:

"Much we hold dear are things that God has given to us to care for and use for His glory." But do we love God "more than these"? June Kimmel strives to answer this question from John 21 as she reflects on things she has loved more in her own life—family, friends, job, home, security. Take a look deeper for yourself as June demonstrates how to love God "more than these." With insightful study questions at the end of the book, this book will help you understand why Jesus asked Peter this question and why He asks the same question of you and me. I was humbled by the poignant questions she asked and found myself reflecting on my own answers. This is a must-read for any Christian—whether you have been saved for a minute or fifty years.
